Copper Dogs Life Annabel Goldsmith Book Preview

With more stories to tell than you could count on the pads of one paw, this curly-tailed, shaggy-bearded mongrel led a truly astonishing life. Famed for his remarkable wanderlust, canine curiosity led Copper to take buses with his friend Jessie the cat, “stop by” his favorite bars, and chase unsuspecting joggers in the park—a hobby which nearly ended his life. In this delightful book, Copper conveys his astounding adventures with the finest of tail-wagging wisdom. He sniffs out all the important things in life: the comings and goings, the loves and losses—and, of course, what it's like to live in high society. Sometimes cheeky but always cherished, Copper's story is by turns funny and moving.
