Draw Me In Megan Squires Book Preview

He's a young, up and coming businessman with the keys to his family's Italian wine enterprise. I'm a fine arts student, navigating life in the Big Apple, my pencil and sketchpad in hand. We meet. We fall in love. But it's not that story. Sometimes, by a rare gift of fate, two lives cross paths. And hey, if that happens to occur when staring at Michelangelo's naked masterpiece, even better. We can tell our future children how a seventeen-foot tall marble guy named David brought us together. But there's always more to a relationship than its beginning and ever after. In life, there's a whole lot of backstory. There are ex-fiancés and hot roommates and family members whose advice continues, even beyond the grave. When you say you love someone, it's never just that one person you're saying it to. And it's never just that one moment that sets everything in motion. There is always more that draws you in
