End Heartache Amanda Risucci Book Preview

Lies, deceit, and destruction seem to be the only thing plaguing the lives of these few people. Anna May does her best in life to get by without getting hit in the face by reality, but that's being made difficult by her best friend, Lauren, and Sean, Lauren's fiancÃ©. Lauren is what you call a flaky, flighty, needy human being with only one mission in her life, which is to get whatever she wants, and she doesn't care who she hurts in the meantime, including her fiancÃ©, Sean. Sean loves her more than anything in the world, and she could care less. Anna May and Lauren work at the Purple Elephant nightclub, dancing on bar tops in short shorts and tall boots, and there is where Lauren met Vincent, the new barback. The second they laid eyes on each other, she was hooked on him and left Sean out to dry. Anna May did her best to comfort him, but as much as she tried, she couldn't talk him off the ledge, and eventually, he lost it. Stalking is the best term for the way he was, but not only was he stalking Lauren but was coming after Anna May as well. Anna May did her best to protect her friend but is having trouble protecting herself. The only axe in the middle of all this horror is everyone's real feelings, mostly Anna May's feelings, for Sean. She was in love with him, and she couldn't deny it. So the real question is, is lying really worth the pain-the pain of the truth?
