One Story A Day Book 1 For January Book Preview

This is the first book of One Story A Day, a series of twelve books designed to develop a love of reading in children ages 6 and up. Written by a team of Canadian writers, these books comprise high-interest topics and motivational content that make children excited about reading. The stories are based on everyday life, funny tales of friendship and family, fables from around the world, and stories about nature, science and history. The One Story A Day series fosters children's total development— linguistic, intellectual, social, and cultural—through the joy of reading. Both the content and structure of the books encourage children to read every day. Controlled vocabulary and targeted illustrations make the stories easy to understand. This series can be used in a variety of settings and with many different approaches. The stories can always bring the joy of words and reading to the ears and minds of children at a crucial stage in their development. Sit back, relax, and discover the pleasure of reading!
