Heritage Dmus The Final Years Book Preview

As railway interest moves on from the steam era the new breed of enthusiasts look to the 1970s and 1980s for their nostalgia kick. Roger Marks focusses on the final years of the DMUs, in particular the 101s in the Manchester area, the Chiltern 211s and many of the later surviving departmentals. In addition to some superb shots of the locomotives he also turns takes his camera inside the cab and saloon interiors, as well as exploring the technical side of the DMUs including the engines and transmission.
