With unscrupulous enemies, a rebellious child, and a farm that was being slowly sabotaged, Dani had to shore up her defenses. But sexy, rugged Chase McEnroe was invading more than just her property; he was trespassing on her heart. Chase needed funds, but his powerful new business partner was pushing him too far. Chase refused to seduce Danielle Summers into giving up her land . . . though he did want to win the beautiful farmer. How could he possibly breach Dani's defenses, yet prove his intentions were honorable, when such renegade emotions were tearing him in two?
